BLUSH CRUSH

Ligne Roset challenged designer Philippe Nigro to reinvent its all-foam seating—his answer, the sculptural and welcoming Manarola armchair and ottoman. The generous cushion is articulated into three sections with a tipped back for extra support. Armchair, $3,325, ottoman, $1,280, ligne-roset.com.

ALL THE BUZZ

Fashioned in 24K gold plate, the doublet Honeybee statement necklace by Julie Vos features an iridescent rose-colored faceted glass pendant with a Cameo bee on the reverse side. $395, available at Hoagland's and She La La, hoaglands.com, shopshelala.com, julievos.com.

ONE GOOD OMBRÉ

Super soft in 100-percent alpaca wool, the Dip-Dyed pillow from Johanna Howard Home is hand-dyed in subtle shades of pink. Each pillow displays natural variations in color and intensity. $350, available through Olley Court, olleycourt.com, johannahoward.com.

SORBET ALL DAY

Influenced by the Memphis Group design movement, the geometric shapes of the Infinity rug are softened in sorbet shades. Hand-tufted of merino wool, silk and faux silk for a soft touch underfoot; the Patterson Flynn Martin rug is customizable in color, size or shape. As shown, $3,900, D&D, pattersonflynnmartin.com.

COLOR MATCH

Imagine the color possibilities with the DacorMatch color system. Dacor's Heritage wall ovens and ranges can be customized to match any color swatch, including First Light, shown here. Price upon request, Zemel's TV & Appliance, zemels.com, dacor.com.

THE GOLDEN AGE

Dedar's L'Age D'or jacquard fabric, in wool and cotton, is characterized by a dense gradient weave, embellished with lamé inserts. Price upon request, D&D, dedar.com.
